2012 Peacemaker Award Nomination

Nomination Due Date: April 30, 2012

The Church and Society Committee of the East Ohio Conference is inviting the community to nominate peacemakers (individuals or groups) for a new awards program. The purpose of this new program is to encourage United Methodists and others throughout our East Ohio Area to consider and embody ways to participate with God in realizing shalom in our communities and in our world. The award will be presented at the annual dinner of the Church and Society Committee on the Tuesday evening during the Annual Conference session at Lakeside.

To nominate a person or group that promotes peace, please provide the following information:

- 1) Name and contact information of the nominee (individual or group)
- 2) Description of the peace and justice work done by this nominee, either throughout the past year or throughout the lifetime of the individual or group
- 3) Your name and contact information

Completed nominations must be received no later than April 30, 2012 in order to be considered for the upcoming year's award. Questions may be directed to Nathan Howe, EOC Peace with Justice Coordinator by phone at 419.447.2371 or by email at paxchristi205@gmail.com.

Please submit completed nominations to:
