

The Media Center recently acquired several new resources. If you would like to see them or learn more about the Media Center please visit our webpage: www.eocumc.com/media-center

Pursuing God; Encountering His Love and Beauty in the Bible will awaken participants to the Lord's beauty and love in a fresh and transformative way through the books of Genesis and the Gospel of John.

Grace, Not Perfection; Embracing Simplicity, Celebrating Joy describes the journey that led the author to pursuing a simpler life--one that allowed her to breathe, laugh, and grow--and provides ways for others to simplify their lives.

Friend of Sinners shows that following Jesus' example, we can have the same clear conviction and compassion for the lost that He did.

John; Lessons on History, Meaning and Application explores issues in John's culture and in ours that help us understand the ultimate meaning of each passage.

How to Lead When You're Not in Charge; Leveraging Influence When You Lack Authority will help you nurture your vision and cultivate influence, even when you lack authority in your organization.

Romans; History, Meaning, and Application comments on the text itself and then explores issues in Paul's culture and in ours that help us understand the meaning of each passage.

Verse Mapping Luke; Gathering the Goodness of God's Word is a method of "studying the historical context, transliteration, translation, connotation, and theological framework of a verse in the Bible."

Understanding World Religions provides an accessible introduction for anyone wanting to better understand the world's many religions and the people who follow them.

Who is Jesus? Some people say he was a good man, a prophet, or a wise teacher. Some think he was a lunatic with delusions of divinity, some say he was a liar bent on deceiving the world. Still others say he was the Son of God, the Lord. History, culture, and the Bible all agree that all of life centers on our answer to this question: Who is Jesus?

A Disciple's Path; Deepening Your Relationship with Christ and the Church \(updated\) is an engaging approach to discipleship from a distinctly Wesleyan perspective that is perfect for a new member class or other small group.

How to Read the Bible for All It's Worth covers everything from translation concerns to different genres of biblical writing in clear, simple language.

Making Your Case For Christ; An action Plan for Sharing What you Believe and Why equips believers with practical tools to equip them articulate this same message to their unsaved friends and present evidence that backs up Jesus' claims and credentials.

Inclusion Tool Box; Practical Ideas to Include Individuals with Disabilities shows how to best support children and youth who struggle with attention, interpreting sensory input, reading and writing – enabling them to experience the full life of their church, while also utilizing their gifts.

The Rock, the Road and the Rabbi; Come to the Land Where it All Began provides fascinating background details and eye-opening revelations that make the story of the New Testament come alive.