ANNUAL CONFERENCE LUNCHEON AND PROGRAM

Wednesday June 13th – 12 Noon

Lakeside United Methodist Church

All are invited!

East Ohio MFSA is proud to announce the keynote speaker will be Rev. Vicki Flippin, Co-President of the national MFSA Board of Directors. Rev. Flippin is a pastor at St. Paul and St. Andrew, a progressive, Reconciling United Methodist Church in Manhattan. A graduate of Yale Divinity School ('08) and the University of Chicago ('05), she currently serves as secretary for the New York Annual Conference's Commission on Religion and Race and is on the steering committee of Methodists in New Directions, working for both racial and LGBTQ equality with equal fervor. She was named the best preacher on human rights to worship with by NYC's Village Voice in 2016. She is a member of her conference's 2016 General/Jurisdictional delegation and is both a sought-after preacher and blogger. She has close ties to both Taiwan and the American Midwest and lives in New York City with her husband and daughter. A dynamic speaker, Rev. Vicki Flippin will bring insight and offer challenges as we continue the work of living out God's love and justice in the world.

The luncheon begins at noon with a suggested donation of $10. Following the luncheon, Rev. Vicki Flippin will speak. After the message, the 2018 Bishop James S. Thomas Leadership Award will be announced. Come and enjoy the fellowship.
