

Announcing an InterPlay Untensive special event
In observance of Juneteenth • LGBTQIA Pride Month • PTSD Awareness Month

Dancing the History of NOW

Leaders include

Masankho K. Banda is a storyteller, dancer, and educator using the arts to promote peace, justice, and cultural understanding.

Gwynneth VanLaven, MSW, is an artist and social worker using embodied practices for healing and social change.

At this three-day immersive experience

Learn and practice simple and powerful tools of movement, vocalization, storytelling and stillness

Reduce stress and restore resilience through creativity and connection

Share stories that build community by speaking to our common humanity

Sing songs
that liberate our hearts

Strengthen our capacity to stay present during challenging times

Register now
Use QR code below

June 25 - June 27

Three day event

Thursday: 7-9pm • Friday: 9am-4:30pm • Saturday: 9am-8pm

at Ursuline College

2550 Lander Road, Pepper Pike, Ohio 44124

Tuition: Friday and Saturday: $375 (includes 5 meals)

Thursday evening is FREE and open to the public

Housing options available at additional cost.

We strive to be inclusive and accessible to enable all individuals to engage fully. To request specific accommodations, or for other information about the event, please contact us. Email InterPlayCleveland@gmail.com or call 216.402.5466

