LEARN. WITNESS. CELEBRATE.

In celebration of the Ohio Council of Churches' 100th Anniversary, we announce a

SERMON/ESSAY CONTEST

On the theme,

Christians and the Disinherited:

Toward the Next 100 Years of Ecumenical Ministry

We invite laity and clergy to submit sermons or essays that show appreciation for past and present manifestations of the ecumenical movement, while offering a sense of God's vision for future expressions of Christian Unity that reveal Christ's love and justice ethic in our increasingly unjust and fragmented world.

The author of the winning sermon or essay will be invited to present it during the morning worship of the Ohio Council of Churches' 100th Anniversary Event on September 6, 2019 at Methodist Theological School in Ohio.

If you are interested in participating in this contest, please submit your original sermon or essay as a double-spaced, 12-point Calibri font, Word document to info@ohcouncilchs.org. Please include a short cover letter and biographical statement.
The winner will be announced in August 2019.
