

Watch the TED Talk from the recommended list, gather some friends, and discuss using these questions as a guide.

*You can also use these questions for self-reflection

Title of the TED Talk:

Speaker:

What is the main thesis of this TED Talk? Is the subject something you had learned about before?

Notes:

What scriptures or biblical stories come to mind when you consider this talk? Does the Bible specifically address the issue or story you heard? How?

If you could ask the speaker one question, what would it be?

What are 2 things you learned from hearing this talk? Share with one another:

1)

2)

How can the church respond to the talk you just heard? Spend some times to brainstorm ideas: