

Mission Teams have found it helpful to use Covenants as a reminder that the 3RIVERS Work Missions are an experience of living in a Christian community.

3R's Mission Worker Covenant

In the scriptures we have the concept of the covenant. A covenant is a promise, an agreement between two or more parties. We ask you to be in covenant with God and the Three Rivers District while you participate on a 3:12 Project.

By signing this covenant, I make an agreement between God, the Three Rivers District, and myself. I acknowledge that I am participating on a 3:12 Project with the Three Rivers District Work Mission program experience because I want to be involved with missions and I want to grow in my relationship with God and with others.

As a 3R's mission participant I will have the opportunity to serve neighbors in need. It is both a privilege and an opportunity for me to grow as a Christian disciple and to be a servant. I promise that I will be an example of Christ to others. I will not speak unkindly or use foul language.

I will not have in my possession any alcohol or illicit drugs.

I will be mindful and respectful of the property of others, treating such with care and due diligence.

I will dress appropriately, as determined by my work mission group leaders.

I grant and convey to the Three Rivers District all right, title and interest in any and all photographic images/video taken by staff/leaders during 3:12 Projects.

If I break this covenant, my family will be notified if I am under the age of 18. If immediate dismissal from the 3:12 Project is necessary, travel arrangements will be made at my own expense.

After you read the above Covenant, please fill out the bottom portion of this page and return it to the 3R's team leader. Thank you.
