There's Far More Here

THAN MEETS THE EYE

So we're not giving up. How could we! Even though on the outside it often looks like things are falling apart on us, on the inside, where God is making new life, not a day goes by without [God's] unfolding grace. [...] There's far more here than meets the eye. The things we see now are here today, gone tomorrow. But the things we can't see now will last forever.

2 Corinthians 4:16-18, The Message (MSG)

We have known and felt what it is like when “things are falling apart on us.” We have experienced a great unraveling that has shifted, quite literally, everything.

Could there be, as Paul wrote to the Corinthians, “far more here than meets the eye?”

Mission u, like many activities in our lives, has moved online. While virtual, we are still creating spaces for spiritual community, lifelong friendships, lessons that change us and our communities, and spiritual practices that arrive when we need them most. In a time when it looks like things are falling apart on us, God's grace is still unfolding and life is being made new.

Indeed: There's far more here than meets the eye. Will you join us?

At our upcoming Mission u, we will examine anxiety, the culture of violence that impacts children in and out of schools, and how we as God's people can deepen our moral witness and respond faithfully.

Our 2021 Mission u will offer the following studies:

Bearing Witness in the Kin-dom: Living Into the Church's Moral Witness Through Radical Discipleship by Darryl W. Stephens	Adults: July 14-15
Pushout: The Criminalization of Black Girls in Schools by Monique Morris	Adults: July 23-24
Finding Peace in an Anxious World , edited by Erin James-Brown	Adults: July 12-13
Managing Anxiety: A Youth Study by Trudy Rankin and Faye Wilson	Youth: July 17-18
Responding to Violence: A Curriculum for Children by Sue Raymond	Children: July 20-21

Join us:
July 12-24, 2021
