

Partners in Mission | EOC 9948

Staff salary and expenses for the Director of Mission and Community Engagement for East Ohio Conference. Kathy works to develop networks, share stories of all God is doing through risk-taking mission partnerships, equips disciples to be God's agent of transformation in the world, reaches out to meet new, young and diverse people so that the Kingdom of God is made real in the world.

Rev. Kathy Dickriede is an ordained Deacon and an East Ohio Partner in Mission who also serves as the Conference United Methodist Volunteers in Mission (UMVIM) coordinator. She promotes local, national, and international UMVIM trips, Virtual Mission Journeys, trains UMVIM team leaders, encourages partnerships across the global connection of The United Methodist Church, and invites others to join this journey.

Dickriede is available for Sunday morning preaching, speaking on United Methodist Women Sundays, at retreats and community gatherings. Kathy desires to meet with leaders to strategize with leaders in the church and community to create vital and creative partnerships for this Kingdom work. kdickriede@gmail.com
